They show what happened during the disasters ... of years ago. Nowadays, rescue workers use ... service to help people. They watch the situation in many places using TV ... and their computers. In case of ..., they always come in time to help people.

(earthquakes, ancestors, disasters, research, best, ancient, cameras, online, prepare, emergency, thousands)

LISTENING

6 Listen to the weather forecast and mark the sentences as true (T) or false (F).

1 The weather is going to be windy. ☐
2 The coastal area will be covered with snow. ☐
3 It will be freezing during the day. ☐
4 Winter temperatures will continue for a week. ☐
5 This is the record low temperature for years. ☐
6 Freezing temperatures cost a lot for the population. ☐
7 People suffer from cold greatly. ☐
8 Bad weather is unusual for this warm climate. ☐
9 Spring may bring us warm weather. ☐

SPEAKING

7 Answer the questions.

1 What do you do for your living?
2 What do you like and dislike about your job?
3 What is your family situation?
4 What are your everyday habits?
5 What are your food preferences?
6 What are your special interests?
7 What is your study experience?
8 What are your plans for the future?

WRITING

8 Write an e-mail about experience with your English by completing the gaps.

Hi! Do you know that my English is not ... at all? Everybody says I ... good English. Yesterday, I went to eat ... and said "Hello!" to the ... . Then, I asked for a ... . The waiter immediately ... the menu! I ordered a dish from the menu and he brought me my ... .
When I ..., he brought me the bill. I ... the money and gave him a small ... . He said, "Thank you ... much!" Then, I said, "Goodbye!" and he ..., "Come again next time!" This is something I did not ..., but I think he paid me a ... about my English. I am very ... of myself!

(out, menu, brought, paid, proud, tip, waiter, very, answered, understand, bad, speak, compliment, food, finished)