Установите соответствие между текстами А — G и заголовками 1–8. Занесите свои ответы в таблицу. Используйте каждую цифру только один раз. В задании один заголовок лишний.

1. Expensive and hardly available
 2. Innovative means of transport
 3. Watch to keep updated
 4. Spectacular but useless
 5. Another stage in music history
 6. Search that never ends
 7. Difficult to use
 8. More options
- A. History has taught us that humans are the most curious and smartest living organisms on the planet and as a result of this we invent new things. Despite the fact we have not yet spent two decades in the new millennium, our century is already full of great and not-so-great inventions. It reminds us that no matter how advanced our society might be, human curiosity always looks for new advancements and technologies.
- B. Berndnaut Smilde, an Amsterdam artist, has been making indoor clouds since 2010. They only last for a moment and they will definitely help anyone who's trying to impress others with his or her surrealistic photos, but we can't really see what other use or contribution to society this strange invention could have. Maybe, the people who work in the film industry will get really excited about this one.
- C. In 2001, before Apple and Samsung started bombing the world with their superb smartphone devices, there was the iPod, a small gadget that changed how we viewed and played music. To make a long story short, the MP3 was introduced to the world and CDs, which had previously replaced cassettes, which replaced vinyl records before them, joined them in the dusty archives of our music technology world.
- D. YouTube was first launched in 2005 and since then it has changed the lives of most young people (and many others) around the world. Let's be honest: watching every large social and cultural change or even stupid trend from across the globe in an instant is one of the most exciting things about living in the 21st century. And yes, YouTube, the most popular video sharing website, is mainly to thank for this.
- E. The Tesla Roadster was the world's first commercially available battery electric sports car. It was developed by a company called Tesla Motors. Until March 2011 Tesla managed to sell 1,650 Roadsters in 30 countries. In 2010 Tesla started developing right-hand electric vehicles for the British Isles, Australia, Japan, and Hong Kong. The most impressive feature of the vehicle is acceleration. The car can shift from 0 to 60 miles per hour in 3.9 seconds.

The Greeks were often involved in wars. One of them was between Sparta and Athens — the two most powerful city-states. Each city-state feared the other. Each of them disapproved of the other's way of life. In 141 BC Sparta declared war on Athens. That bitter war lasted for 27 years. At first each of the enemies were evenly matched: Sparta's soldiers won land battles, sailors from Athens triumphed on the sea. But after the death of Pericles — the great military leader of Athens, who died from a terrible disease, the state could never recover its strength. It continued to fight with great courage for a short time, but finally had to surrender in 401 BC. Sparta, though victorious, was weakened by that long war as well. One of its biggest problems was that the city-state was no longer politically united. The divided Greek city-state was now weak and open to the attacks of outside powers.
